RIVER GIVES UP LAST OF DEAD

Body of Smith Turner, Drowned February 26 with Four Others, Recovered

FOUND FLOATING NEAR MILL

The last of the bodies of four colored men drowned while crossing the Monongahela river in a skiff to East Charleroi on February 26 has been recovered, burial taking place at Monessen Thursday. This body taken from the water was that of Smith Turner.

Workmen at the Pittsburg Steel mill at Monessen saw an object floating down stream and in turn the deputy coroner and undertaker were notified. The body was pulled out at Bamford ferry it being in bad condition.

The last body recovered previous to this was that of John Sherman on April 10. John Barksdale's body was first recovered near the Pittsburg Steel mill and the next was that of George Cooper, pulled from the river at Tenth street, Charleroi.

BASEBALL HITS BURGESS' WIFE AND LAW IS REVIVED

Beallsville Ty Cobbs Arrested for Playing Ball on Streets When Real Accident Happens

When Mrs. Wilson L. Sargent, wife of Burgess Sargent of Beallsville left her home Thursday evening it was with no intention of starting anything more serious than a promenade along Main street Beallsville.

When a number of young men among them Borough Councilman Ray Amon—tossed a ball gently fro and to along the same thoroughfare, they had no thought of deriving anything but pleasure pure and unalloyed from a little indulgence in the national pastime.

When the borough fathers long ago passed an ordinance forbidding ball playing in the streets of Beallsville, they had little expectation that it would be observed. Such ordinances never are.

But when Mrs. Burgess Sargent was struck by a stray ball thrown by a luckless young Ty Cobb and she went and told the burgess, her husband, and her husband, the burgess, sallied forth and arrested the ball players for violation of the borough law long since forgotten, why, that was a horse of another color.

Eight young men tomorrow evening will face the irate burgess, who promises to put "stuff" on his "fadeaway" that will put Big Six to shame and give the lawbreakers a much needed lesson. He'd "a done it" tonight only the borough clerk went away on a visit and took the ordinance book to fill out the empty space in his trunk.

HOGAN IS FOUND GUILTY OF THEFT

Sentence Imposed on Man Accused of Robbing Midway Station in 1914

OTHER CASES ARE ENDED

John Hogan, alias Jack Hogan, indicted for felonious breaking and entry and larceny, was found guilty Thursday afternoon and sentenced to pay the costs, fine of $1 and to undergo imprisonment in the Western penitentiary for an indeterminate term of from three to 10 years. He is one of three men apprehended for the burglary of the station of the Pennsylvania railroad company at Midway on December 22, 1914.

Two others, alleged implicated in this robbery were never apprehended. Since that robbery Hogan got in trouble and was just recently released from the Ohio state penitentiary at Columbus, O., where he had served one year for burglary. When his time was out there the district attorney was notified and a Pennsylvania railroad officer went to Columbus and took Hogan in charge.

On the night the station was entered over $90 was taken belonging to the railroad company, over $30 belonging to the Adams Express company and the collection of old coins.

Tony Costa was found guilty of aggravated assault and battery. The assault was made upon Nick Di Guglielma following some trouble in an Italian club at Bentleyville. The prose-

FURTHER ACCIDENT PROBE RECOMMENDED

Coroner's Jury Sitting in Inquest Into Death of Miss Mary Allison Turns Case Over to Grand Jury—Asks Borough to Place Signs

Recommendations that the grand jury of Washington county further investigate the automobile accident of Wednesday morning along Lincoln avenue, where Mary Allison, aged 25, was struck and killed, together with recommendations that the borough of Charleroi place danger signals at this and other points now unprotected, were made by the coroner's jury sitting in the inquest Thursday evening at the office of Deputy Coroner Lawrence B. Frye. Coroner James T. Heffran conducted theinquest.

Eleven witnesses were heard including Robert Jones, of Allenport who drove the automobile concerned in the fatal happening, and Herman Paxton, the escort of Miss Allison. Paxton appeared with his head bandaged from the injuries he received. Besides Jones and Paxton the other witnesses were Alex Hudsnith, William Fletcher, George Garrett, Miss Louise Jay, Miss Agnes Boag, all of the party of which the dead girl was a member; Isaac Beazell, Hays Walters, Thomas Werton and Fred Collins of the automobile party.

Generally the trend of the evidence offered was the same. Miss Allison was walking with Paxton ahead of three other couples returning from a party out Maple Creek. Jones with his party were returning from an automobile trip a short ways out the road.

Jones' own testimony probably covered the actual happenings as well as any. He told that to give a couple walking at the right side of the road plenty of room, he swerved his machine toward the left side. The bank there looming up suddenly in the darkness made him think he was running into it and caused him to turn suddenly to the opposite side of the road. He said he did not see Miss Allison and Paxton in front. Neither was he aware that he crossed the curbing in the right side of the road, as shown by the tire marks. His first knowledge that a couple were ahead of those he had passed was when the accident occurred. Stopping the car within about three car lengths by the application of the foot brakes he with the others in the car alighted and went back to ascertain just what had happened. Miss Allison was found lying on the brick street and Paxton nearby, also on the brick, both were placed in the machine and brought to a doctor's office.

Paxton said he and Miss Allison saw the car coming and that he lifted her off the brick street and over the curbing. The accident happened so quickly that he had little time to think of possibilities and he does not remember being hit. He maintained that both he and the girl were on the dirt to the side of the brick roadway when the car in a twinkling came at them. William Fletcher testified that the car climbed the curb. He and Miss Boag were walking a few yards behind Miss Allison and Paxton.

According to the evidence of various ones, the car was running from 20 to 25 miles an hour. One placed the speed at 30 miles an hour.

It was testified that the car was owned by three of the Jones' family, it having been purchased on March 29. Robert Jones had driven it on an average of about three nights a week since purchase.

A mass of details was brought out. Only one member of the automobile party had any sense of the right wheels of the autimobile scraping, but he did not know that the car had passed over the curb. He knew of the manner in which the car swerved. Among the testimony was that relating to the operation of an automobile by Thomas Werton, who said he had helped teach Jones how to run. He said that he thought Jone was dependable. When questioned, he maintained he would not "back" any person with a couple months experience to operate a machine at high speed. He estimated the car was not running more than 20 to 22 miles an hour.

The question of lost control was brought up. Jones maintained he did not lose control but was only trying to act quickly in getting away from the left bank. Fred Collins admitted under oath that he had feared Jones had lost control.

The verdict contained the usual preambde to a coroner's verdict and then came the important part, which read as follows: "We further find that the accident was due to inexperienced and reckless driving. We recommend that this case be referred to the grand jury of Washington county for further investigation. We further recommend that the borough of Charleroi place danger signals at this and all other points in the borough now unprotected in accordance with the Act of Assembly."

The reason for the recommendation to the borough to place danger signs was due to evidence brought out at the inquest that there were none near the point of the fatal accident.

The members of the jury were: R. H. Rush, foreman; J. L. Reeves, Thomas Warrensford, W. D. Pollock, George Lieth and Floyd Chalfant.

SHEEP CLAIMS PAID OUT TO THE EXTENT OF $7,230

All Damages Cleaned up by County Commissioners —Campaign on Sheep Killing Dogs Successful

The county commissioners paid out Thursday sheep claims to the amount of $7,230.00. For the first time in the history of the sheep damage fund, this clears up all claims for damages to sheep, horses or cattle on file. Under the provisions of the late dog tax act and the determined effort to collect this dog tax the fund from which sheep damages, etc., were paid, was always short. Claims were paid about twice a year, but were always many months beyond and several thousand dollars in claims were usually backstanding. The record is clean now, so far as these claims are concerned, and it is believed that hereafter they can be kept up to date. Farmers losing sheep have had to wait heretofore many months before they received the damages allowed them. One hundred sixty-four claims were paid Thursday. The preparing of so many warrants requires much work.

SCHOOL CANTATA WELL PRESENTED

High School Talent Appear in Pleasing Production of "Queen Esther"

PROF. I. T. DANIELS DIRECTS

One of the most pleasing entertainments of the school season was the cantata, "Queen Esther" Bradbury, which was presented in costume at the high school auditorium Thursday evening. Prof. I. T. Daniel, supervisor of music in the schools was in charge as director. Pupils of the high school composed the cast of characters. It will be repeated tonight.

The cantata is a story of the life of Queen Esther, one of the most beautiful characters of Biblical history. history. The musical arrangement is a difficult one and an especially heavy production for a high school to undertake. All the parts were well handled showing careful preparation and training. Miss Thelma Duvall enacted well the part of Queen Esther singing her several solo numbers in a pleasing manner. In the role as King Ahasuerus, Russell Carl delighted the audience with his interpretation. His solo work was capable. Ernest Dorbritz as Haman sang his numbers in a pleasing and effective manner. The part of Mordecai was well taken by Ralph Hickey. Miss Grace Chester appeared in the part of Zeresh and showed ability in her characterization. Mordecai's sister, Miss Jean Bowers pleasingly interpreted her role. The roles of Prophetess by Miss Ruth Clerihue, Median Princess by Felicie Bosson, Persian Princess by Grace Fleming, Scribe by Wilford Gaskill, High Priest by Everett Kibler and Herald by Wellington Carl were all were taken care of. The choruses of Jews and Persians furnished a pleasing part of the entertainment as did the work of the guards and pages. A song and drill was presented by a chorus of twelve boys and twelve girls

During the evening Prof. Daniel was presented with a beautiful boquet of pink roses, as a token of appreciation for his work. Miss Mary Welsh ably officiated as accompanist.

RED WAGONS TO COME TOMORROW

Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus to Arrive Early Saturday Morning in Charleroi

UNLOADING IS INTERESTING

The red wagons come tomorrow! Three special trains will arrive in Charleroi early Saturday over the Pennsylvania lines from Indiana. Abroad will be the paraphernalia and equipment of the Carl Hagenbeck-Wallace circus which is scheduled for two performances, on the circus grounds tomorrow.

Charleroi will probably entertain one of the largest crowds of the year tomorrow. Railroads and trolley officials have made preparations for handling a large increase of passengers.

The first wagon to be unloaded tomorrow morning will be the enormous kitchen van. It contains sixteen feet of steel cooking space and upon it is prepared all the meals for the circus followers. While the space is necessarily small, yet it is compact.

It requires 22 separate tents to properly house the Carl Hagenbeck-Wallace shows. There is the cook house tent, stables, four of them, blacksmith tent, harness tent, side show tent, the menagerie tent, which houses rare and costly animals and the big arena tent which comfortably seats many thousand spectators.

The Carl Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus, when it is pitched on the show grounds in Charleroi early Saturday morning will form a little city all in itself. There is a lawyer, a dentist, a doctor, two veterinary surgeons, half a dozen blacksmiths, harness makers, and barbers, besides a whole corps of bookkeepers and stenographers.

One of the most interesting features apart a big circus is the erection of the monster tents. It is the custom with all other circuses to use eight or ten men to drive the big stakes into the ground. With the Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus there is a pile driver on the wheels which does the work of forty men. Another time saver may be found over in the "cook house." It is a little machine which cuts bread as fast as a man can operate a crank and insert the loaves.

The first part of the program Saturday will be the monster two-mile long street parade which will leave the show grounds at 11 o'clock. The principal downtown streets will be passed through. There will be upwards of eighty cages and dens containing wild animals, half a hundred elaborately carved and decorated tableau wagons and floats.

Several hundred noted circus artists will take part in the big show's program. Among a few of the features will be Herr Von Ritter, a daredevil, who slides on his head down a silver wire from the highest point in the arent; the Fisher troupe of six aerialists from the Royal circus Amsterdam, Holland; the Ward family of five aerialists with Harry Ward, the only person who has successfully turned the triple somersault; the Eugene troupe of nine male acrobats; the Cottrel-Powell family of riders brought to this country from France; the Lenzie troupe of wire artists, five beautiful young women whose "debutante slouch" on the wire has elicted much interest; the Davenport family of riders and scores of other noted circus troupes.

CHARLES CARSON DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Charles Carson, aged about 39 years, died after an illness lasting between three and four years this morning at 10 o'clock atthehome of his father, Henry Carson, in Fallowfield township. Two sisters, Mrs. D. R. Duvall of Charleroi and Mrs. Harvey F. Brown of Ohio, with two brothers, Allen and Kit Carson at home survive. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the late home with Rev. E. N. Duty officiating.

Fashion experts say dress goods are going higher. This probably means Eve would be quite in style today.

RICHARD OWENS DIES FROM HIS INJURIES

Richard Owens, aged 53 years, died Thursday in theMercy hospital at Pittsburg from injuries he received about three weeks ago in a fall of slate in the Globe mine at Roscoe. Internal injuries caused his death. His widow and the following sons and daughters survive: Mrs. Joseph Adams of Monongahela, Rose, Iva, Margaret, Richard, Edward and Edna at home. Also a number of brothers and sisters survive, living in various countries. A son of Owens 17 years ago was killed on the railroad tracks at Elco.

According to the opinion of the court this duty of the constables is not discretionary but mandatory. And further, the constables in each ward, borough and township are held responsible for every dog running at large and unlicensed, the tax to be charged up against the constable on any bill of costs which he may have against the county.

For the first time in many years every sheep claim has been paid by the county to date and more than $4,700 remains in the dog fund for the payment of the killing of unlicensed dogs. The effect of this new law has been two fold. It has given the sheep owners their money promptly and it has eliminated thousands of worthless dogs throughout the county. Next year there will be fewer dogs running at large and fewer sheep killed. The tax on those licensed dogs will be more than ample to take care of all future claims and undoubtedly result in having a surplus in the treasury.

While the dog law is not the best that might have been framed for the protection of the owners of sheep, it is far better than the old one.

SENIOR CLASS OF HIGH SCHOOL APPEARS LAST TIME AT CHAPEL

Members of the Senior Class of the high school were in charge at the chapel exercises at the institution on the hill this morning it being their last appearance as members of the class at the regular morning devotional exercises. While the orchestra played "Auld Lang Syne," the 23 members of the class marched to the stage each wearing the class flower, the white rose. Ellsworth Kinney, president of the class was in charge of the service and the scripture lesson was read by Edwin Booth, vice president of the class. Charles Lowstuter, James Ryland and Carl Marsch gave short talks. During the exercises the members of the senior class sang "How Can I Leave Thee?"

WEAK AND TIRED WOMEN

Tells How Vinol Made Her Strong

Charleroi women who are weak, rundown and suffer from the consequent effects of such a condition, will be interested in Mrs. Odell's letter. She says:

"I am a farmer's wife and was all run-down, weak, tired and suffered from indigestion, and sometimes it seemed as though I could not keep around and do my housework. I had taken many medicines without benefit. One day I saw Vinol advertised, and made up my mind to try it. I have taken four bottles and have gained seven pounds in weight am much stronger and feel many years younger than before." Sarah Odell, Lockport, N. Y.

The reason Vinol builds up weak, run-down women so quickly is because it contains a delicious combination of the three most successful tonics, peptonate of iron to enrich and revitalize the blood, the strength-creating, body-building elements of fresh cods' livers without oil, and beef peptone.

We want to say to every weak, run-down overworked woman in Charleroi that we will return your money if Vinol fails to help you as it did Mrs. Odell. Pipers Drug Store.

MASTER BLACKSMITHS RAISE PRICES ON WORK

At a meeting of the master blacksmiths of Local No. 82, composed of Donora, Charleroi, West Newton, Monessen, Roscoe and Monongahela was held at Monongahela this week, it was decided to raise the prices on some of the work. Horseshoeing was raised on No. 6, 7 and 8 shoes. Heretofore the price was $2.00 per four shoes but under the new arrangement an additional 50 cents will be charged. The reason for the advance the blacksmiths state, is the raise in the cost of shoes and nails.

GAS IN FOURTH SAND AT WATSON NO 2 WELL

Gas was struck Thursday in the Fourth sand at the Watson No. 2 well which is being drilled by the Arco Oil company. Drilling has not been finished and it is imposible to estimate how good a producer it will be. By an agreement exisiting between the Arco company and the Carnegie Gas company, the latter concern will get the output. A sowing of oil was found in the Gantz sand at the Watson No. 2 and it was drilled deeper and like at the Cynthia Conger well, gas was found. The drilling will be completed immediately.

HOGAN IS FOUND GUILTY

cutor was stabbed. Costa was sentenced to pay the costs a fine of $1 and to undergo imprisonment in the workhouse for three months.

Charles R Cunningham of California, was found guilty of a serious offense. The prosecutrix was Sarah Reese. She accused Cunningham of being the father of her child. Her home is at West Brownsville. Cunningham endeavored to claim blackmail, but the commonwealth's evidence was very strong. The jury was out just about long enough to turn around and come back in. The defendant was sentenced to pay the costs, fine of $10, pay $25 for expenses incident to the birth of the child and pay for its support $2 a week until five years of age. His bond was fixed at $400.

Walak Misarousky, Andy Borsch, Pete Hostrich, Thomas Waller and Jan Moras, five of the men arrested and held for rioting and for felonious assault and battery, in connection with the strike troubles a few weeks ago at the plant of the American Zinc & Chemical Co., at Langeloth, were found guilty. They were each sentenced to pay the costs, fine of $1 and to undergo imprisonment in the workhouse for three months. Harry Dorke, Pacco Borsch and Pete Ostich, also indicted for riot and for felonious assault and battery, were acquitted. It was not shown that they participated in the riot and the attack on Charles Ferich, the state trooper, when he attempted to quell the crowd about the chemical company plant. Harry Silvesenic, indicted for carrying concealed weapons, he also being arrested at the time of the riot, was found not guilty, the costs being put on the prosecutor, C. D. Nicholson.

Angelo Luylinpietra and Angelo Bragnich were found guilty Wednesday of the charge of keeping a dog, they being unnaturalized citizens. They were each fined $25 and costs and in default of the payment of the same to serve one day in jail for each $1 of the fine and costs. The law specifically forbids an unnaturalized foreigner from having in his possession a dog. Cases against Mike Dukaska and Harry Saloni involving the same charge were settled before being called for trial.

GIRL COULD NOT WORK

How She Was Relieved from Pain by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Taunton, Mass. — "I had pains in both sides and when my periods came I had to stay at home from work and suffer a long time. One day a woman came to our house and asked my mother why I was suffering. Mother told her that I suffered every month and she said, 'Why don't you buy a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?' My mother bought it and the next month I was so well that I worked all the month without staying at home a day. I am in good health now and have told lots of girls about it."—Miss CLARICE MORIN, 22 Russell Street, Taunton, Mass.

Thousands of girls suffer in silence every month rather than consult a physician. If girls who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, headache, dragging-down sensations, fainting spells or indigestion would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a safe and pure remedy made from roots and herbs, much suffering might be avoided.

Write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. (confidential) for free advice which will prove helpful.

The Smoke of Men Who Win

A fresh-rolled "Bull" Durham cigarette almost says "Speed up!" right out loud. Keen-eyed, clear-headed fellows smoke "Bull" Durham because it has the sparkle and the "punch"—the youthful vim and vigor. Every time you "roll your own" with "Bull" Durham you open the door to Hustle.

GENUINE
"BULL" DURHAM
SMOKING TOBACCO

"Bull" Durham is unique among the world's tobaccos. It is distinguished from all others by its wonderful mildness, its delicious mellow-sweet flavor and its distinctive aroma.

You get a lively smoke and a satisfying smoke when you "roll your own" with "Bull" Durham.
